Dear Miss Mason.

I have this morning received the last of the acceptances. The teachers are by keen - I have not had a single refusal. Overleaf I give the names addresses of those who are coming.

I have been spending the week-end with Mr Holmes. He took the liveliest interest in our proposed conference & asked me to say how sorry he was not to be able to attend. As you have probably seen, he has been appointed

BEAUMONT,
WINDERMERE.

Chief Inspector. He has ~~also~~ done me the honor <sup>asking</sup> me to be his Coadjutor, which means that I shall have the nominal control of a London District <sup>school</sup> ~~at~~ <sup>which</sup> I shall spend most of my time at Whitehall. I candidly ~~say~~ <sup>say</sup> that I am ~~very~~ <sup>very</sup> sorry to leave dear little hertfordshire ~~where~~ <sup>where</sup> still to exchange the delights of education for the <sup>cold</sup> ~~dry~~ <sup>dry</sup> duties of administration. Nevertheless I feel I must accept the office after the pressure that Mr. Mansel ~~Mr. Holmes~~ have put upon me. I am to be succeeded by a splendid man, ~~to whom~~ <sup>to whom</sup> I must introduce to you. He is the most accomplished scholar that Oxford has produced during the last 15 years.

Please look upon my news as capital breaking news.

With kind regards

Very sincerely yours

E. Weyman-Williams.
